

DELIVERED BY Rev. Winston Watson ON Wednesday, MARCH 11, 2009

"I don't know how to share what He is telling me to share. I am just going to share it as it comes."

There is a place in Him that He so clearly desires all of us to be, but we just stand in the way of His ability to access our lives. There is a cry in the heart of God for the church. There is a cry in Him for you.

"I can feel a very tangible presence of God following me everywhere I go."

We look at God as some force out there that is always ready to bash us and ready to destroy us and ready to challenge and do so many of the negative things that people have portrayed Him to be and to do that we have forgotten to look for ourselves and experience for ourselves the lovingness, and the kindness, and the graciousness, and the mercy that flows from Him. He may be God and sounds like something far away from us, but He has always from age to age continued to reveal Himself. He has attempted, in using various names and using His very character and nature to reveal Himself in every facet of the need of our lives. He has attempted in so many ways to open our eyes to see who He is in the situations that have confronted us over the years since our birth. It is so incredible to who He is and the graciousness of His presence that has been with us.

He continues to be astounded when He has revealed Himself through the books and the prophets of old, and then when that was not enough, He revealed Himself through sending Someone that came from His very Essence, His Son, who we call Jesus. This Jesus came to manifest his heart, to manifest who He is into this natural world and yet He was so clearly rejected of men. He was not recognized for who he was and who he is because Jesus himself said I AM. When He said I AM it means to Him and to the Father that sent Him and to the Spirit that continues to guide the world, it means to them that He was from the very beginning of beginnings and forever He shall be. When He came into our lives, He came into our lives to emphasize to us that He would carry us from our beginnings into eternity because for each and every one of us there is no ending. There is a life beyond this and a life in Him that will carry you into a sense of glory, and into a sense of power and presence that is unfathomable to the mind of the human being.

The scriptures themselves, although man's pen has tried, through inspiration to share the character, the might, and the witness of this God, it pales in comparison to the reality of an experience in His presence. JEHOVAH is indeed GOD, and as He continues through every generation to raise up those that would give the revelation of that aspect of His character and nature to their culture, to their people, in the times and seasons that has been appointed by JEHOVAH, so many having heard and have still strayed and it hurts the heart of their Creator. For we are created in His image, we are created in His likeness; we are created to demonstrate to all of the other created beings who He is because in you and in me He has put a part of Himself. If we would but touch and gain access to this new place of His presence how profound the world would be, how different would be our lives, how different would be our experiences, how different would be the victories that we would encounter in this natural world.

Who are we today? Are you just a man born of woman or are you someone born of the Kingdom of Heaven? For being born of the Kingdom of Heaven has granted you access into another realm. For your hand now reaches into the realm of the Spirit and reaches into the world of the natural things that you experience. When you touch the Spirit world you have gained access into the realm of God. When you touch the natural world you have gained access into the realm of mankind but you have the ability as the created beings made in the image of God to bring that which is in the Spirit world into the natural. You have the ability to speak those things as your Father spoke them so many eons ago, to speak them into being, to speak light where there is darkness, to speak love where there is hate. You can bring into this world the dramatic changes necessary that the world would see that Jesus Christ is indeed, not Lord on paper and within the pages of what we call the Holy Bible, but He is Lord of our lives and He is Lord of the ages.

O that man would open their eyes and see who Christ truly is! O that man would open their heart and understand the revelation of the creation that is before them, for not one cell was formed by mistake, not one organ in your body was by chance, for God strategically planned every essence of your being. Every plant, every star in the heavens was created for purpose and so too are you. And so many have left this natural plane without ever understanding what their purpose has been, and so then others would have to be formed, and others would have to be called, and others would have to be empowered, and others would have to be captain, and others would have to be trained, and others would have to be brought into place to fulfill that which some have not taken on as their responsibility, but, will you? Will you set aside the things that have drawn you and the things that have captured you and have captivated your eyes? Would you allow your eyes to see from His perspective? Would you allow your eyes to see from the greatness of the mountain of God? Would you allow yourself to experience His essence and his presence in your life so that He can then move into the sphere and lives of others?

We all know that the world has a great draw; we all know that the natural things around us have the ability to pull us from the very thing that our earnest expectation is., for on the inside of us there is a seed that draws us unto JEHOVAH. There is a seed that will be as a magnet that attracts us unto the very God that created us but we resist the drawing of that seed, and we put all things and all kinds of replacement and all kinds of substitutes before us, and this JEHOVAH that has created us for His purpose, for His glory and to praise Him, to honor Him and to worship Him we shy away from Him, because we think He wants to take the things away from us, but He wants to bring us into such glory, he wants to bring us into such prosperity, He wants to bring us into such peace, a peace that is unfathomable by our own human intellect and our own human understanding.

For tonight the very angels have danced in your midst. For tonight the very angels have glorified Him, for the created beings that rest in this place, that they would choose to be vessels yielded unto Him to pray, to worship, to open their mouths to call upon Him on behalf of those who would oppose themselves.

For the glorious realms and the glorious ones look upon you and they desire to be like you. They desire to have God's own Spirit on the inside. They desire to have creative power moving out of their own mouths as you do. They desire to have the hope and expectation to be with Him for eternity as you will be. For (they desire to have) this revelation of mankind hidden from ages past but revealed through the Adamic world, this revelation of a created being that would walk in such greatness and such power. A created being that would have been in the very throne room of God and then exercise the authority of God delegated to them. Yet, through deception that was lost but it was not lost in the mind of JEHOVAH, for JEHOVAH planned and understood that His purpose must be fulfilled no matter how long the ages might come, no matter how many years or how many thousands upon thousands of years might be experienced by mankind, yet His purpose would be fulfilled. And so He destined you and I to walk in a way that was different maybe from others, but walk in a way so that men and women that would be within the sphere of an influence of your life would come to know who He is and come to know what He has decided to do and come to know what His plans of the ages will be because these things were not revealed to the very angels.

Lucifer himself had no idea, although he was so empowered and so blessed of JEHOVAH, he had no idea what was in the mind of God and so he tried to destroy the purposes of God. With a third of the angels he destroyed what he thought would be the unity and the agreement that existed in the heavenly realm. And when he fell to the earth, he thought that he was now beginning something new, something different, something that would rival the kingdom of heaven but little did he know that in the mind of God his very fall and destruction was already in effect. For although he deceived man his fall was destined (to come) by the new man Jesus Christ. When Jesus Christ came upon the earth, he came with a singular purpose to take back that which was man's destiny and then to give to mankind that which was always ordained from before this earth, this universe, and this galaxy was ever in the thought of - restored to God - that mankind would be restored to his level of authority and again walk with JEHOVAH. It is JEHOVAH'S desire that each one of you walk in the greatness of the revelation of who the first Adam was and then who in Jesus Christ the Second Adam you have become.

You see it is not by chance that men and women have come to the place of disrespecting the presence of Almighty God. It is the destined work of Satan and his forces to bring a lack of respect, and to bring a disorder, and to bring anarchy to this world so that men and women will truly not know or understand the loving kindness of the Father that has created them.

There is a season coming and is already here, that the challenges to the church, and really, the challenges to the world will increase for Antichrist who my revelation said must come is coming. The attack you see on health, the attacks you see on families, the attacks you see are all strategic things happening in the world to destroy the fiber and fabric of what I have wanted you to bring as a church to the nation. For without you how can the world know who I am? For without you how can the world truly appreciate my power? For without you how can the world truly see what unity is in my Godhead? Because I AM JEHOVAH, I AM the SON, and I AM the HOLY SPIRIT and there is a unity among us that I have desired to be among you, the body. When the world sees that unity, when the world experiences and sees that unity, when the world experiences and sees the power of agreement in the body then the world will fall and truly know that I AM GOD.

Well what a challenge it is to the heart of man for his heart truly is evil, his heart truly is not after his Creator and the prophets of old have penned these words. From Moses My servant through all the scriptures that have been revealed to you as the chronicles of My word and the canon of scripture. You have seen how the heart of men has turned from JEHOVAH; you have seen how no matter how I demonstrate myself and miraculously intervene in the life of nations, yet nations turn from me. How can I persuade you? What could I use to indelibly imprint on your heart the LOVE that I have for you and the desire I have for you to be victorious, for you to walk before me upright and in righteousness all the days of your life.

Through the years I have raised the great prophets, I have opened the seas, I have stopped the very sun from moving in the heavens and yet my people are faithless. But I will not give up on you. I will not give you to the enemy of your souls. I will continue to press into your lives. I will continue to raise those that are seasoned and have the word of truth and that have My heart, those that walk after Me, I will continue to raise them. I will continue to - as they yield themselves into Me, I will continue to use them to persuade Me to strengthen you.

The time draws near, for as you have seen in the scriptures, there shall be wars, there shall be famines, there shall be pestilences around the globe, there shall be things which never have been heard of or seen in the history of your natural world, but quickly they shall come and many shall be destroyed but the destruction is not My will nor is it My purpose. The destruction is because of the unyieldedness of a people. Many more will come to know Me if you would yield yourself and if the church, My body, would yield itself unto Me in a greater way, many, many hundreds of thousands and millions of souls would know Who I AM and would come into the righteousness that I have given through the Blood of My Son Jesus Christ.

Will you come to the Balm tonight? Would you allow yourself to be washed and indeed be sealed by the very Spirit that descended upon the Apostles in the upper room in the city of Jerusalem so many years ago? When I came in power, I came because I wanted the Fire of My Presence to be emblazoned upon the hearts of men. I wanted Who I AM to be imprinted in your very nature but I also could not usurp the authority that I have given you to make a choice so I put on the inside of you my Spirit and then I empowered your spirit to connect to Mine so that you would hear from Me, and then when you hear, you have the choice. You could choose then to live, to live in a glorious way, a way you have never experienced before, a way that mankind would have never known but through the release of My power that resurrected Jesus from the dead. Your life is mine if you will it so. You see, your hand is My hand, you see, your feet is My feet, your mouth and for that matter your ears and your eyes and your faculties that I have given you naturally are Mine to use, if you will it so.

My entrance into the natural world was guaranteed and covenanted through Abraham's sacrifice of his son on a mountain. For by faith what he did caused Me to have opportunity and the right to enter into the natural world and then bring My own Son so that I could give My own sacrifice to reconcile you and to buy you back from the destiny guaranteed by the deception caused to Adam...who you know as Adam. It is just a matter of saying "yes, use me", "yes, I am yours". It is just a matter of faith, it's a matter of believing, for the commodity of faith, the thing you call faith is a gift unto you that no other creature possesses. It is the ability to believe beyond that which you see; it is the ability to hear beyond that which you naturally hear. It is the ability to see things happen beyond your ability to have them so. For I have deposited in you that part of Me that created this world, that part of Me that created the heavens, that part of Me that will assemble things and move things into place that never before existed. You have the right to speak into this world that which is My desire (will). You have the right to change darkness into light. You have the right to change the very nature of things into that which I desire (will), all through the pronouncement and confession of a word. You call it faith; I call it the Power of God - the ability of God your father, your Creator.

It is only natural that being the offspring of God you will be like Him. It is only natural that being the offspring of God you would think like Him. It is only natural that being the offspring of God you would do as He does and so as Nicodemus was told that starry night that he must be born again, so too you, entering into the womb of the Spirit being born again you have become the offspring of God. Your very nature has changed and if you would yield, gives access, wholehearted access to Me, the profoundness of the glory that would flow through you, yes, would cover the earth. Yes, Antichrist is here, there are many antichrists against the anointing. For even those in your midst at times would speak against the very presence of God at work and at move in your midst.

There is not much more that you can bear to hear, but there are many things that I will show you, there are many places that I will take you. There is a season and a time coming that men and women that are in my body will experience the supernatural, will experience things that [Can I say this? Yes, yes, yes speak and make it plain], for there are many things that you will see, things that are written in the scriptures., the movement of souls from place to place all to declare the power and majesty of JEHOVAH. Nations will come to know Me because of the flooding of my Spirit into these. As you have seen natural tsunamis, well you will begin to see spiritual tsunamis moving into geographic areas of your world. The only reason why these things can happen is because there are people like you who have yielded themselves, who have called upon me to move in this great way in their geographic areas, or for that matter I have raised them up in other areas to pray for other regions so that those other regions can be blessed, can receive of My Presence, receive of My Spirit, receive of my Glory, receive of my mercy, receive of my saving grace so that they too will know what has been hidden from them from ages past.

Will you be so raised? Will you allow Me to speak through you? Will you allow Me to touch regions of the earth that have not been touched by My Word that has not been touched by My Presence? Will you allow me to raise you up? Will you allow Me to speak through you the oracles of My majesty? Will you allow Me to raise the dead? Will you allow Me to indeed bring a glory of my Presence into the earth, for what you have been petitioning me for an awakening of your nation? It is not My desire to awaken just one nation, just one people group, it is My desire to awaken the world, but there are many foes, there are many obstacles. Yes. But you see My Spirit seeks out all those that have a heart after Me. I have already empowered you for from before you ever came onto this natural plane you were empowered and I put in your path what is necessary. It is not by chance that salvation has come to your door because from before you were ever entered into this world I made it clear that salvation, the message and the gospel of salvation, must come to you and then the choice that you would make to come to Me would bring the reality of My Presence to others. You see, your spirit emanated from Me, your spirit came from Me.

You must reawaken your knowledge of who you are. The Bible, that which was released by My Spirit, into the world through the prophets and the writers are things that were known to mankind before the fall, are things that are known in the heavenly realm and things that were known to your spirit before you entered this natural plain, but there must be a renewing of your minds. You see a renewing happens because your mind had the knowledge at one point in time but now you must begin to renew it and rekindle that which was deposited in you because the enemy of your soul has tried to deceive and destroy that which is inherent in your Spiritual DNA. Once you have come back, once you have been renewed in Me, you have the opportunity to rekindle and refine that which was already written into your spiritual DNA. You know who God is, you know the power and majesty of His words. You know the authority. You see when I told Jeremiah that I knew him, so too I know you and it is not by chance that the word of truth, the word of power, the word that prevails has been released into your lives, now you must begin to release it.

There is tremendous pressure on you, I know. A tremendous pressure for you to turn away from that which is your destiny. I don't exert that kind of pressure. I call you and I woo you with a love from My Heart so that you know that I care, so that you know that I've always cared and I have a purpose and a plan, an expected plan that you will prosper and that you will do great things in this world on My behalf to show Who I AM and to demonstrate to others around you that God is alive and He cares for them. Open your eyes and see My glory for it is your destiny and your inheritance. Open your eyes and experience My Presence.

Many of you have been asking for answers to family issues and answers for monetary problems, and for answers for health concerns and answers for so many things in the natural. The answer is the power of the Name. Begin to declare the Name. Begin to declare the Name. Begin to declare the Name. Begin to declare the Name. Already at the Name of Jesus there are some things that have been moving out of your lives, some things that have been arrayed against you, they are moving away from you. The reality of liberty and freedom has come to your natural senses. You have a sense that there is something moving from you. You have a sense that there is a liberty that is coming upon you but you must press in, you must pull from My Presence. As you pull from Me more is released, more is released and more is released.

You think so many are against you, you think so many are arrayed against you, but like the servant of the prophet you must look and you must see, for you must spiritually perceive that there are always more with you than are against you. You must realize the power of the Blood shed has guaranteed to you safety, safe passage through this life. For you are crowned with glory and honor, and you must realize that all created things; they are afraid of you. They are afraid of you coming to the place of knowing who you are, of understanding the gravity of that which is released in you. They cringe in fear when a word is released that opens a level of understanding unparalleled in history. For the more you know is the more they fear. Knowledge is significant. Without the knowledge in the Book you can be defeated. Live the Book. Live the Book. Live the Book.

One last thing, you remember in the book of Daniel, there was a man called and named Daniel that petitioned Me and when he asked for an answer it took some time for that answer to come, that answer had to come from outside of himself, but when you ask me in this dispensation, I answer you from within. So listen to that which is within you. Hear within your heart, hear within your innermost being, for I am always speaking, I am always consoling, I am always counseling, I am always guiding. Develop your spiritual ear to hear what I say. Be guided, not by emotions, not by just your thoughts and your natural ability to see and perceive but be guided by that which I have put on the inside of you. Remember your Spiritual DNA has been written with Me in mind. Remember that you have been designed after Who I am. Be strong and of good courage. I so commanded one of My great prophets and leaders, Joshua, and so I command you this night, hear and be strong.

"Yes Jesus."
