Jamaica and Ruling Powers

Kingdom of Darkness

The island of Jamaica like any other country has ruling powers in the darkness of this world.

- Ruling over the Government
- Ruling over cities
- Ruling over areas within cities
- Ruling over towns
- Ruling over families
- Ruling over the religious activities of the nation
- Ruling over realms of authority
 - Education/Academic
 - Government
 - Business/Economic
 - Arts, Athletics and Entertainment
 - Media and Communications
 - Religion
 - Family

The ruling authority within the island of Jamaica will direct the government and influence activity to support the kingdom of darkness.

Kingdom of God

God's holy angels also dwell or have effect on the island according to our prayers and confession. We have the dominion and right as members of the body of Christ to affect the course of events on the island of Jamaica.

Kingdom Rule

All Realms should be influenced by the Kingdom of God. A lack of our influence causes a dysfunctional sphere and thus evil or perversion has an opportunity to exercise control over the realm.

The Church should encourage involvement without compromise. Compromise does not promote kingdom principles.

Churches

- Division
- Strife
- Religious Dogma (doctrines of devils)

1 Timothy 4:1

Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils;

- Deny Jesus is Lord
- Deny the Deity of Jesus Christ
- Deny the Grace of God that saves all who would call upon His name
- Deny the Baptism of the Holy Spirit with evidence of speaking in tongues
- Deny the manifestation of Healing
- Deny the Gifts of the Spirit
- Teach Salvation can only come by works

Generational Authorities

Deuteronomy 28:59

Then the LORD will make thy plagues wonderful, and the plagues of thy seed, even great plagues, and of long continuance, and sore sicknesses, and of long continuance.

- This indicates that there can be a continuing plague or sickness that affects a family (seed).
- This is a part of the curse and may be broken by the blood and in the name of Jesus

2 Peter 1:4

Whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises: that by these ye might be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust.

- Our new nature, God's nature renders our former heritage null and void.
- Ignorance however can allow our enemy to lay things at our doorstep that we think we have to take.
- We are new creatures in Christ, not subject to the old man but we must learn who we are and stand on that knowledge

2 Corinthians 5:17

Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new.

- We are redeemed from the curse

Galatians 3:13-14

13 Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree:

14 That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ; that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith.

- Demons do not die and consequently they have the ability to attach themselves to our ancestors and throughout time jump to another generation of the same family.
- You see this in the inheritance of familiar spirits when those who worship Satan or participate in occult practices pass them onto their children.

Deuteronomy 5:9-10

9 Thou shalt not bow down thyself unto them, nor serve them: for I the LORD thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me,

- As you have lived in darkness and those of you who still do, those who speak of God and act like we know him but in our hearts we hate him.
- Hating him is as simple as the act of being disobedient to his command and following his direction for our lives.

10 And shewing mercy unto thousands of them that love me and keep my commandments.

- When laws have been set in motion we must recognize that it takes a specific effort to have that law made of non effect.
- If we have set in motion over your lives or the lives of our children laws of destruction we must:

- 1. Repent of our actions
- 2. Bind every spirit that was allowed to affect our families
- 3. Curse the root of every established stronghold and command it dry up in the name of Jesus

Example:

Relate the story of the children in Jamaica that were delivered of demonic habitation and when they would go back home they would be infested again. Their parents were involved in spiritism that worshipped demons.

They would come to the school and be delivered but whenever they would go back home where devils were worshipped they would return to school more tormented.

Story of the family that every first male child born did not survive that was on BBC.

Diseases and Demonic Activity

Some disease that tend to be caused by demonic involvement are:

- Cancers, and other hereditary type diseases
- Living diseases such as Aids
- Arthritis
- Mental Abnormalities (Mad, crazy, schizophrenic, depression, suicide)

Circumstances that tend to be caused by demonic presence:

- Accident Prone, Suicides, other psychological problem traits
- Poverty

Example:

Relate the story of the man who was diagnosed with schizophrenia. He was the brother of a friend of mine at church.

One evening I went to the house to pick up something and he was not normally talkative.

He did not see me come in but when his sister went to his room while I was in the living room he asked her who was the preacher that was with her.

He had no way of naturally knowing what was transpiring or who I was since I had never been there before and his sister had not mentioned me.

Some signs of demonic Activity

Demonic activity can exist in both Christians and non-Christians alike. A Christian cannot be possessed but can be severely oppressed by demon entities.

These signs are not all inclusive and not everything is demonic so you must be careful to seek God's leading in identifying whether something is demonic or not.

Illnesses

- Pain of long continuance
- Diseases that prevail in certain families or communities
- Mental disorder
- Epilepsy
- Physical deformity

(Bitterness, strife will cause you to create an atmosphere of legal ground for the devil to affect you physically.)

Spirit of Delusion

When a believer or non-believer is deluded or convinced that they are super special and they have a great anointing above everyone else. Whatever we have or is manifested through is by the grace of God and not by or through anything that we have done or will do.

Mark 9:35

35 And he sat down, and called the twelve, and saith unto them, If any man desire to be first, the same shall be last of all, and servant of all.

- We must be careful when we have dreams or visions with spiritual entities telling us that we are God’s gift to mankind. That’s developing pride among other things in us.

II Thessalonians 2:9-11

9 Even him, whose coming is after the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders,
 10 And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved.
 11 And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie:

Angel of Light

Satan comes as an angel of light

2 Corinthians 11:13-15

13 For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ.
 14 And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light.
 15 Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works.

- It is not the norm that the Holy Spirit or the Lord Jesus will come to you or send an angel to you to tell you that you are great.
- Can it happen, yes, I wouldn't say that he won't do it. But you will find that even some of the world's leading men of God will tell you that they have never had such a visitation.
- And when they have it never causes them to be in pride or be lifted up in their minds. It is to teach them and even then it may be only once in their lives.
- If you desire spiritual manifestations the devil is very willing to oblige you and deceive you.
- Take great care in what you embrace, if your leaders and those that are spiritually mature around you encourage you to seek God's direction about your involvement in spiritual activity God may just be trying to get you to see the light.
- No one can deliver you from a spirit if you don't want to be delivered. The Spirit will heed their command to leave but you can welcome it back and then it brings even more with it.

Abnormal Manifestations

In the presence of the anointing demons cannot typically keep themselves quiet, they will try to attract attention to themselves or they will try to disrupt the service. Some examples of demonic manifestation:

- Writhing like snake or acting like an animal
- False Tongues (the Holy Spirit will reveal it)
- Loud and boisterous praise drawing attention to themselves
- Throwing themselves on the ground

Vulnerability to Spiritual forces

Living at the edge of the camp and not near the presence of God

- When you live outside the protection of the Holy Spirit.
- When you don't take time to be in His word and to pray, to come together as the church

Num 11:1

And when the people complained, it displeased the LORD: and the LORD heard it; and his anger was kindled; and the fire of the LORD burnt among them, and consumed them that were in the uttermost parts of the camp.

Not protecting our young

Not guarding young Christian's with prayer and support

Romans 15:1

We then that are strong ought to bear the infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves.

Murmuring and rebellion against God's Leaders

- See Numbers Chapter 16 and Numbers Chapter 12
- Korah, a family member of Moses decided that he was just as anointed
- 250 of the well known men, leaders, respected elders of the community joined him
- These were not strangers but men that were intimate with the presence of God because they worked in the tabernacle

Numbers Chapter 12 speaks about Aaron and Miriam

- They had prejudices in their life
- They did not think that the Man of God, a hebrew should've married the Cushite woman

- Older male bears will kill and eat younger cubs if they are not protected

The bear will even consume it's own, so the bear does not discriminate ... if it will attack it's own it will kill you without a second thought...

- The bear will shred its victim when he is through the victim is virtually unrecognizable.

Their life with God doesn't exist anymore.

No trust in them for the church ...

Every part of them that was like God is ripped apart and they become vulnerable to the ultimate DEATH

Spirit of the Snake

- Some Feeds on other snakes

Like the bear does not respect anyone ... anything around it is subject to its destruction

- Some Feeds on the eggs of other snakes and animals (kills the dream before it can be born)

Before your dream of vision is realized the snake will take it and consume it and destroy it ... rendering it dead and aborted ...

- Some start out by eating small prey like rats but as they grow they eat pigs, monkeys and deer (python)

The snake when it's just entered your circle will only begin eating and attacking small things in your life... If you don't recognize it, it feeds until it's ready to hit the big things like your health, family relationships and finances.

- Snakes use diverse strategies for capturing their prey.

One strategy does not fill all when it comes to how a snake captures its prey

- Slender and agile snakes actively pursue their prey

Some snakes will actively seek you out and will pursue you ... the people around you that you want to get away from but it seems that you can't shed them.

Habits that you know are wrong but you enjoy them so you keep dabbling ... a snake getting ready to kill you.

- Snakes with thicker bodies, such as pythons, are more likely to wait in a coiled position and ambush their prey as it passes by.

These snakes don't dwell in wide open space, they are usually coiled in rocky, marshy, overgrown places that you can't really see your path well. Places where you question whether you should really be there.

Some even camouflage themselves to match their surroundings so that you wouldn't notice them.

Others like the rattle snake will even issue a warning that you are not on safe ground, if you ignore it the snake will bite.

- Many snakes begin to swallow their prey while it is still alive.

Some sins will start to consume you while you are doing your best work for God. When you open the door to compromise or allow yourself a "small" sin or just a little of this or that.

Pretty soon you're a totally engulfed with it and don't know how to get out of the situation.

- Snakes that kill their prey use one of two methods: Constriction or envenomation
- Constrictors, such as pythons and kingsnakes, wrap their coils around a prey animal, tightening their grip each time the prey exhales.

Some attacks wrap themselves around you but you have enough in you initially so they won't suffocate you

But you let down your guard and stop praying, stop going to church, stop fellowshiping with your brothers & sisters in the Lord and you ... EXHALE ... the grip get's tighter

Eventually, it crushes your bones ... and kills you

- In this way, constrictors gradually suffocate their victims

You lose the energy to seek God. From little to no more prayer, don't want to see the Pastor anymore ... or people in the church ... you are allowing the suffocation to kill what's in you and eventually to kill you.

- Several groups of snakes kill their prey with venom.

Some vipers will inject you with the poison that in themselves. Whispering in your ear the poison of strife ... deceit ... division ... discord ... bitterness and you smile and allow them to bite then pump that poison into your spirit.

- Vipers inject their venom and then release the prey immediately, later following the scent trail to find the dead animal.

When some of these vipers bite and inject their venom the stand back and watch to see it destroy you.

They are the ones that bite you, deposit their poison, then go to the next person and start talking about you... did you know that sister so and so does this? She can't be a christian, she was just telling me about so and so!

The just watch and wait for the poison to immobilize you, then they come in for the kill.

- Others, such as cobras, simply hang onto the prey they have poisoned and swallow it when its struggles have ceased.

Some will hang about and hold onto you, stick to you closer than a brother yet they are sucking the life right out of you.

Not only sucking the life but gradually pumping in their poison to also immobilize you.

Spirit of the Crocodile

- Crocodilians are amphibious, spending much of their time in water, where they swim with rhythmic strokes of the tail. Amphibious creatures, they can survive in water and also live on land...

This spirit is comfortable in our churches. It hovers around the move of God and all we may see are the eyes protruding, or sometimes a wave of the tail.

When the place is dry land they are easily detected ... where the spirit of God is not moving they are easily seen

Where the spirit of God is moving they tend to hide behind the scenes, masking themselves with holiness, or religious activities so that we don't see them for what they really are.

- Likes shallow bodies of water ...swamps, marshes and rivers ...

The church with no depth of teaching or spiritual growth

- Likes shallow bodies of water ...swamps, marshes and rivers ...

The church with no depth of teaching or spiritual growth

- The tail is sometimes used to capture prey, sweeping it from shallow to deeper water, where it can be devoured more easily.

As you get close to the spirit it will attack by using it's mouth but it will not always do that in shallow water...

Using it's tail it tries to get you out of balance by sweeping you into deep water in which you cannot balance yourself.

The crocodile will not tell you to stop what you are doing, it will force you to do more, demanding more time, more energy until you are so in over your head it devours you.

- The jaws of crocodilians are powerful enough in closing to crush the bones but so weak in opening that they can be held together by hand

The strength of the crocodile is really in its powerful tail which it will use to sweep you into a place of imbalance.

It's mouth is easily kept shut by a simple hand but once they are opened they can crush you when they close.

It's good to keep his mouth closed and never allow him to get close to take you into it for it will destroy your reputation, your integrity and your honor!

- As the crocodilian floats almost completely submerged, its protruding nostrils and eyes and a portion of its back are the only parts visible as it stalks its prey.

As the crocodile stalks his prey all you see are those eyes floating, sometimes you may notice the upper back make a ripple in the water and you wonder what that was ...

You know something is wrong but you only see the ripple not realizing that there is death submerged just below the surface.

When the Holy Spirit makes you aware of the ripple and your spirit questions what was that? Take note and allow him (The Holy Spirit) to make you aware of what's going on.

It's time to be alert and watch the move of the water ... try the spirits and know that it truly is God's.

- Their body temperature depends on the environment

This spirit can dwell in nearly any temperature ... it's body temperature adjusts to its surroundings ... very adaptable ...

- Crocodiles are carnivores; they eat fish, birds, turtles, frogs, and mammals.

These spirits don't worry about your plans to destroy them ... or your dreams to discredit them ... they just attack you and destroy you!

- Make some fearsome hisses and bellows

Noisy, boisterous spirit and will let you think that it is powerful and can overtake you.

Spirit of the Lion

- Kills only once in about every five attempts

The lion is not a precise killer ... it will attack often but not succeed infrequently

Especially when it acts alone ... but it does not always act alone

- Often, lions scavenge, or steal prey, from other predators

Lions will watch for the victims of other predators and then come in for the kill themselves or take the carcass for their own food ...

The lion's spirit does not always start the kill itself ... it watches for the vulnerable after another has already weakened it, started the kill, or already killed it ... then it consumes what's left

- Lions usually hunt at night, alone, or in groups

Hunting at night, when the rest of us are asleep... When we aren't watching and feel that we can be at rest the spirit of the Lion works at its best.

- Their preferred prey are large hooved mammals, such as zebras and wildebeests, but they will go after small hares as well as huge giraffes.

The spirit does not discriminate, it will go after the Pastor, the deacon and the church member.

The bigger the prey the more the challenge and it will try to be successful at bringing it's prey into its paws and fangs.

- Typically, a lion hunting alone will slowly and silently stalk its prospective victim, trying not to be seen, until it is about 30 m (about 98 ft) away.

The lion will stalk and watch it's prey from a distance. I will typically not allow the prey to see it until it get really close

It will also try to not approach from an angle that the prey can detect it by sight or smell.

The prey must therefore be aware of its surroundings and see actions of other animals as they detect the lion's approach.

The prey may also develop a keen sense of hearing that will allow it to detect the sound of the approaching predator.

- Then with a burst of speed, the lion will run toward the prey, grab it, and throw it to the ground. The lion kills the prey by biting the back of the animal's neck with sharp canine teeth or by holding the prey's throat in its jaws until the animal suffocates.

The lion will run after its terrified prey when it surprises it. Then grab it by its neck ... and hold it to suffocate it.

It attacks from the back of the neck, so that you don't really see the fangs coming at you only feel the pressure of the bite.

It can also be hard to defend yourself when your attacker is behind you ... that when you need the help of your brothers and sisters in Christ.

- If, during a hunt, the prey detects the lion's presence and starts to run, the lion gives up. Although lions are capable of high speed over short distances, they do not have the endurance to chase down an escaping animal.

If the lion realizes that the prey has detected it early ... he will not pursue it.

The spirit of the lion does not have any endurance and if you stand on the word of God its effect or attempt to grab you cannot last long

- In group hunts, lions may surround potential prey so it has nowhere to escape, or some lions may drive prey into the reach of others. Two or more lions may grab and slash together to bring down an animal.

The larger the prey the lions will change strategy and will tend to hunt with others.

They will surround the prey and then when distracted by others, one of the lions will attack and immobilize the prey for the others to come in for the kill.

Smaller prey does not require the group strategy so they will hunt alone for the smaller animals.

Lions are more likely to hunt together to kill larger animals, such as zebras and buffalo, and usually hunt alone to kill smaller prey, such as warthogs. In either case, other lions that did not help with the kill still move in to share the food.

Spirit of the Dragon

- Among the Asiatic people, the dragon is traditionally regarded as a symbol of good fortune.

The dragon is a sign of prosperity for a certain people ... who worship it

It is a consumer of things before it for it bellows fire that consumes whatever it is allowed to.

- Among the Celtic conquerors of Britain the dragon was a symbol of sovereignty

The dragon is a symbol of power and conquering, ruling

It is a ruler in the economic life of a people ...

- The legendary monster was also depicted on the shields of the Teutonic tribes that later invaded Britain, and it appeared on the battle standards of the English kings as late as the 16th century.

The dragon subtly infiltrate european states, the US and West Indies with the move of it culture from the Asiatic world

In the early years states such as brittain with the spirit of the dragon sucked the life out of it colonies and deposited its offspring the spirit of the crocodile in Jamaica.

- Beginning in the early 20th century, it was inscribed on the armorial bearings of the Prince of Wales.

Rulers used the symbol in their very crest and armor to demonstrate power ...

- Headed the hordes of chaos and whose destruction was prerequisite to an orderly universe.

The dragon may come with many heads ... which allows it to scare or put fear into a people that are its victim ...

With its multiple heads the dragon has the ability to affect more than one victim at a time.

Usually you see groups getting together ... separating themselves because of a perception of being better than the others (usually from an economic perspective)

- In the sacred writings of the ancient Hebrews, the dragon frequently represents death and evil.

The dragon is a ruling spirit and has significant power and must not be underestimated.

The dragon is likened to Satan himself in authority

The dragon must not ever be made to feel at ease in our midst nor are we to feel at ease in his

We must not mix with the dragon or his influence.

Spirit of the Monkey

- The monkey is not a predatory spirit like the others we have just discussed.
- Not being predatory sometimes is even more dangerous to us as a body.
- It stays around and sows confusion, blindness, deafness and dumbness into the body of Christ.
- The monkey is a clinger or hanger on.

The spirit of the monkey clings to your back like the proverbial "monkey on your back statement" that we so often use.

The monkey adds a weight to you, burdens that you have no business carrying.

Sometimes you feel weighted down without cause or rational explanation. The monkey is hanging on with a weight of death, foreboding and fear.

Legend

- In Chinese mythology, a god-hero whose exploits are recorded in the Xiyouji (The Journey to the West).
- He was a master of magic, and his weapons included a magical staff capable of growing or shrinking to any size.
- Monkey defied the supreme god of Chinese mythology, the Jade Emperor (Yu Di), with his own claim as high god.

To appease the mischievous Monkey, the Jade Emperor proclaimed him King of Heaven, concealing the fact that he had only made him a heavenly stable keeper.

- Monkey, with his irrepressible spirit and countless magic tricks, is generally regarded as a personification of the nature of genius.

The Howler

- Largest and heaviest of the monkeys ...
- Grandiose plans that add a weight to the church ...
- Loud and Great sounding to the ears but empty of depth and spiritual insight...
- They feed mainly on leaves and fruit but will also eat insects, seeds, and flower parts.

They specialize in the small things ... eat just a little at a time of your ministry, your vision or your Christian life ...

Their consuming of you seem insignificant that if you don't really know it you wouldn't pay much attention ... until one day you wonder what happened.

The Day Sleeper

- Douroucouli, common name for a small South American monkey, also known as durukuli, night monkey, owl monkey, and aotus. It is the only monkey that feeds at night and sleeps during the day.

Not comfortable in the church setting but is ready to show up when we get together in homes and on the corner.

Squirrel Monkey

- Their fur is short and is generally yellow to yellow-green on their backs and limbs. They have white faces, throats, and ears.
- Their muzzles and the tips of their tails are black. Insects are their main food. Squirrel monkeys travel in small bands and are active during the day.

Always in group ... active in the day or when the church or you are really getting into the things of God.

Proboscis Monkey

- Proboscis monkeys are chiefly arboreal and eat leaves and fruit, but they are also capable swimmers, taking to waters of mangrove swampSalm and delta regions, where they are commonly found

Adept in the religious life of the church and our lives. Eating the fruit of others lives.
